

RANDOLPH

Mrs. W. A. Cole Died Tuesday After a Violent Coughing Spell.

The death of Mrs. W. A. Cole occurred at an early hour on Tuesday morning, at her home near the stock farm about one mile below the village. Mrs. Cole had been ill for about a month, with what at first was called a spinal trouble but which later seemed to be tubercular. For the last two weeks she had been more comfortable and for two days had expressed herself as being better than for a long time. During a violent spasm of coughing, she evidently ruptured a blood vessel, and hemorrhage took place and she died almost instantly. Mrs. Minnie (Byam) Cole was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Byam, who live at Bethel, Gilead, and for many years she and her husband had lived at the stock farm, where they proved very efficient help for the owner of the same. It being near town they were here almost daily to do business, and in their business acquaintance had formed many friends. Mrs. Cole is survived by her parents, her husband and one sister, Ida Byam, who lived with her for the most part of the time. COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

Grandma Kept Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick with a Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treat, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular, because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Adv't.

ogue on Egypt," and was illustrated by fine pictures, and was enjoyed by a small audience, owing no doubt to the fact that the notice was not properly extended, and many did not know of it in season to go. FRESH AIR AND HEALTH

Mental work calls an unusual supply of blood to the brain; the process of digestion calls the blood to the stomach. Brain work immediately after a hearty meal often causes indigestion because the brain has first call on a supply of blood than the stomach.

Wherever, in the economy of the body, work is to be done there is a demand for bright, red blood. Thin blood or blood dark with impurities will not do because it is the oxygen carried by the blood that does the work and oxygen-bearing blood is bright and red.

This life-sustaining oxygen is taken up by the blood from the air which it meets in the lungs. Hence the great need of fresh air every hour of the day and night. But fresh air is useless if the blood cannot take up the oxygen which it gives. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enable the blood to take up more oxygen because they increase the part of the blood that carries the oxygen. This corrects the lassitude, palpitation of the heart, shaky nerves and the pallor that are the results of thin, impure blood.

You must have pure, rich blood to enjoy complete health. A booklet "Building Up the Blood" will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

IN BOSTON MARKETS

Little Change in Cheese and Egg Market During Week.

Boston, April 1.—Conditions in the local butter, cheese and egg market are pretty much as they were at the close of last week. A slightly firmer feeling is noted in the egg market and henery and nearby offerings range a cent a dozen higher; receipts are fairly heavy, but the demand is really large and market is keeping very closely sold up. Demand for butter does not increase much and there is not much firmness to prices save possibly on the very best goods. The market is pretty much in buyers' hands on the undergrades, supplies of which are heavy, while holders are eager to sell. The cheese market is firm for want of supplies; old cheese is practically exhausted and new goods are not yet coming in at all freely.

MONTEPELIER
Middlesex Map Sells 400 Lbs. Maple Sugar, at 15c Per Lb.

Arthur Bailey brought 400 pounds of maple sugar into this city yesterday, from his home in Middlesex, made from the first run of sap and disposed of it at 15c a pound.

In city court last night three men were arraigned—Arthur Tucker, charged with larceny; Arthur Tucker, charged with intoxication; and Joseph Aja, charged with selling liquor. Tracy was sentenced to 60 days in jail, it being alleged that he had stolen a Bible, a dress suit case, a man's coat and several small articles from the Central Vermont station Saturday night. The property belonged to Earl L. Ricker of Northfield Falls. It was while he was waiting for the southbound train that he left the suitcase unguarded for a few minutes and upon his return found it missing. Tracy entered a plea of not guilty, but the Bible was identified as Mr. Ricker's property and the man was sentenced.

Tracy was only recently released from jail for stealing a muskwaug coat last December. He is 25 years old. Arthur Tucker, aged 48 years, was fined $5 and costs for intoxication, but was unable to pay and so was given the alternative sentence of 20 days in jail. The trial of Aja followed a raid at his house on River street yesterday afternoon, when one half-barrel of beer and seven pints of whiskey were seized. Aja pleaded not guilty to the charge of keeping intoxicating liquor and his case was continued until this afternoon.

The question of allowing a lavatory to be built in the basement of the Barrows & Peck block, to accommodate the employees of George Boyles and the A. H. Temple Co., was again considered last evening before the members of the board of health, and Dr. William Lindsay was upheld in his stand against allowing such action. Dr. Lindsay asserted it was not his business to tell what he thought right or wrong, what should be allowed or not allowed, but that it was expressly stated in the regulations of the state board of health that no lavatories should be placed in basements or cellars, and that his business was to carry out such injunctions. Also that in the ten years he has held the office he has permitted none to be put in and that it is no time to establish a precedent by beginning now. When the vote was taken the health officer was upheld in his view.

Sheriff Frank H. Tracy returned last night from an extended trip to Italy.

In probate court yesterday E. L. Scott of Barre settled his account as administrator of the estate of Philip Prior, late of Barre.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" at Opera House To-night.

No play that has been presented in many seasons has made a more powerful appeal to the sympathies of the audience, and certainly none has proven more popular, than "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" which comes to the opera house to-night. The laughter and applause with which this piece has been

Of all women, she is the dearest and funniest, the ideal philosopher and friend, at once a broad beam of sunshine mid lowly surroundings and a benediction among all her associates. It is a play which makes a universal appeal, its every taste and every locality.

The play will be presented here under the management of the United Play Co.—Adv't.
